

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE
SECOND JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA.

STATE OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 16MM00534
SPN 244261

vs.

Antonio R. Davis,

Defendant(s).

NOLLE PROSEQUI

COMES NOW WILLIAM N. MEGGS, State Attorney, by and through the undersigned Assistant State Attorney, and enters this Nolle Prosequi in the above-styled cause, and as grounds would show:

The defendant is a veteran and the State believes he may have mental health issues. The defendant had no other criminal history. The defendant served one day in jail. The State was satisfied with the day he served in jail to conclude his case. At first appearance he indicated he was going to go home back to South Florida. It was indicated then that he was possibly homeless. The State does not believe it is a good use of State resources to bring him back to Tallahassee for the charges against him. There was probable cause for the offense.

Dated on May 26, 2016.

WILLIAM N. MEGGS
STATE ATTORNEY

/s/Jessica M. Tehlirian
Jessica M. Tehlirian
Assistant State Attorney

cc: Jennifer Painter, service.leon@flpd2.com
Capitol Police Dept. Property & Evidence Section #16-00639

3716M02708